LISTING PUBS AS COMMUNITY ASSETS

Following on from April's Community Pubs Month, CAMRA continues to look at ways at how we can support local pubs. The traditional local is often an important social hub and provides a meeting place for community, activity, sports groups and more, it can be the place where family celebrations are held or life landmarks are toasted with a pint.

Under the recent Localism Act, there is an ability to nominate such pubs as an asset of community value (ACV) which offers the pub some additional protection against development that would see the community lose its pub.

There are three key benefits to listing pubs as community assets:

- It adds a vital extra layer of protection, and will mean the pub can't be sold on without the community being told.

- If a listed pub goes up for sale, its ACV status has the power to postpone the sale for up to six months. That's enough time for pub campaigners to gather together a bid to buy the pub and run it as community owned using the Community Right to Bid powers.

- Listing a pub proves how valuable it is to the local community and councils can take this into account when considering planning applications against the pub. Property developers looking for a hassle-free purchase are less likely to show interest if a pub is listed.

CAMRA has set a goal of getting at least 300 pubs listed nationally by the end of the year, you can help by nominating your local for listing. The form is available from the City Council's website, you need to complete this form and also prove you have the support of at least 21 local people. Help and advice with this available on CAMRA's website.

SHEFFIELD BREWERY CO

RIGA - OUR NEW IPA SPECIAL

Continuing the development of the Stainless centenary celebrations the Sheffield Brewery Co is now selling its new special Riga, a 4.5% IPA. Riga, in Russia, was the Salamander works location of Firth's plant where Harry Brearley worked as Firth's Chief Chemist aged 32 on ordnance production and the use of chromium in developing corrosion resistant steels.

Brearley was recalled from Riga to head up Brown-Firth's research laboratory, a pioneering joint research and development department shared between two Sheffield major steel producers, Thomas Firth & Sons and John Brown & Co. This research led on to the development of the name 'Stainless' synonymous with its production in Sheffield and supplied throughout the world.

Pubs have been ordering our specials to coincide with the celebrations and the Sheffield Brewery specials have been going down an absolute treat. Stocks of specials are limited so look out for Riga on the bar!

HLW PIE 'N' PEA FUNDRAISER

As part of St Lukes' Hospice

Pie munching HLW staff

charity pie 'n' pea challenge throughout March, the solicitors and young professionals of HLW Keeble Hawson managed to munch their way through 50 pies and as a joint effort with Sheffield Brewery raised a staggering £700 for the cause.

Sarah Riley, HLW, organised the bash and was delighted with the event. The organisers tipped their hats to the brewery for making it a special night and hopefully we'll be organising more fundraisers for St Lukes next time!

KELHAM ISLAND

We are convinced the weather going to change and have taken a leap of faith to offer free brewery tours down at Kelham Island Brewery on bank holiday Monday 6 May.

Our shop will be open all weekend for a clearance sale to make way for our summer stock and we will be doing crazy deals on our minikegs. Show up in our new Loft Bar (above the brewery shop) from 11am to collect your free tour ticket. If you are out for the day The Fat Cat is hosting a Mini Festival, BBQ from 2pm, Robin Garside on guitar & the 10pm quiz.

On sale will be a brand new mild for May. Mistress Flames 5%. An elegant ruby mild brewed with a sophisticated blend of amber, crystal and black malts for a lavish sweet mild with caramel and malt flavours with subtle liquorice notes. A flamboyant mild.

Our second brand new Bank Holiday Beer is, Addicted to Love 4% - Extra Pale Ale. Light, delicious, delicate ale, brewed with the finest British wheat and barley malts and the best continental hops. The colour is pale straw and the nose is a subtle bouquet of fragrant floral and spicy notes to make you feel great.

Hopefully the weather will be fine so make the effort to call down on Monday 6 May.

ACORN

We welcome two new employees, Sheryll Haig from Sheffield is joining our sales team and Matthew Shaw from Elsecar is joining the brewing team after 2 years brewing at Wharfbank Brewery.

Beers for May are: Lightness 3.6% Light golden Pennine Mild brewed with Fuggle hops that impart light noble aromas. Darkness 4.2% Aromatic roast malts give a deep red colour and Fuggles Hops give a mild level of bitterness and aroma.

BLUE BEE

Ah! The merry month of May. It was Star Wars day in 2011 that the first beer was brewed at Blue Bee. And now, two years on, they are approaching the 100th brew. This auspicious occasion will be marked with a special one-off beer; Rich is promising something unusual brewed with honey.

The snooker themed beers are going down well as always; one of the stars of the tournament was spotted enjoying a half of Blue Ball, no less.

And with the onset of the Glorious British Summer upon us, watch out for the welcome return of Light Blue. Summed up as "a summer quaffer brewed with Summit hops, this 3.6% pale ale is, quite simply, a hop-lover's dream, in a glass".

STEEL CITY

Shazz's debut brew, Alestorm, is currently doing the rounds and is going down a storm (sorry), while kiwi-infused variant Aureol certainly made an impression! Alestorm has a full-on tropical fruit aroma, which gives way to citrus flavours and a lasting bitter aftertaste.

April's brew saw Steel City host a collaboration – the first, in fact, for the brand new Hopcraft brewery! Pixie Spring Tom joined Dave from Steel City, while Gazza 'Two Hats' Prescott was representing both Steel City and Hopcraft! The beer itself is a Dunkelhopfenweizenbier, named Walpurgis Nacht after both the Pagan (and latterly Satanist!) celebration at the end of April, and the album by German metallers, Stormwitch. A traditional 50/50 blend of Pale Maris Otter and Wheat Malt with half a sack of Carafa Spezial for colour, followed by 110 IBU of Columbus and Warrior for bitterness and a shedload of Galaxy and Nelson Sauvin for flavour (OK, so that last bit isn't very traditional), and fermented with German WBo6 Weissbier yeast.

Walpurgis Nacht will be appearing in all the usual suspects, plus Birrasana in Spain. Shakespeares will have the usual variants on the brew, including A Slight Case of Overhopping 20 and Mein Luftkissenfahrzeug ist voller Aalen ('My Hovercraft is full of Eels', obviously...). Another variant will appear in the Shakespeare and Reading Beer Festival, entitled Metal Fatigue - it's as black as Thatcher's heart and bitter as a miner's tears*.

Meanwhile, the minikit used first runnings to produce what we believe to be Britain's first ever Kaiserlichdunkelhopfenweizenbier (easy for us to say! As if you hadn't guessed, this translates as Imperial Dark Hoppy Wheat Beer...). It's named POTY Mouth, and will feature at the celebration party for Shakespeares (Steel City's biggest customer!) well-deserved Sheffield Pub of the Year award. POTY Mouth will be approximately 7% ABV and 199 IBU.

Opinions expressed are those of the author's.*

WOOD STREET

Our beers are going tremendously well at the moment and we have had a very busy April with beers going up and down the country. We are now brewing two monthly specials to keep up with demand.

April's specials were Siamese Rough Bush 4.4%, a single hopped straw coloured ale, full of pine and grassy notes with a distinct hopped filled finish and Tuliptree 4.8%, a strong goldern ale with citrus notes and medium hopped for a balanced easy drink. May brings Boojum 4.2%, an American triple hopped, complex, satisfying session pale ale and Coco de Mer 4%, an intense dark chocolate porter, light in alcohol and high in flavour.

We're also planning to increase capacity by installing 4 new conditioning tanks over next couple of months.

WELBECK ABBEY BREWERY

We can't quite believe that it's April already! We're still busy and are pleased to have taken on a few more customers in our area. We're looking forward to Stuart joining the team to spend a bit more time looking after our customers and introducing our beers to new ones too.

The Grey Horses is launching as our brewery tap and celebrating three years since opening with a beer and music festival between 7th and 9th June this year. There will be 12 handpulls, a real cider, and local food on their BBQ and of course plenty of live music at the pub. Make sure it's in your diary, and don't forget you can get the train to Worksop and visit a few more of the real ale outlets in the region.

In March we were pleased to bring you two completely different beers; Dark Horse and Calypso which were well received. This month we're brewing Slovak Paradise, a crisp dry lager-hopped blonde which is brewed with lager malt for a dry finish. Dana and Tettang lager hops give it a thirst quenching Eastern European zing.

Being May next month we will be brewing our 3.8% sweet dark mild, Elis. This beer is named after a Welbeck Racehorse, which, out of interest, was the first to travel in a horsebox with wheels (what novelty I hear you cry...). Our Elis is a sweet, dark mild, brewed to be thirst quenching and drinkable, yet flavoursome with subtly balanced vanilla, coffee and chocolate tones.

You might have spotted Here's to better Wether 4.7% lager style pale ale in a number of JDWetherspoons around Sheffield, Rotherham, Doncaster and Barnsley. We planned and brewed it with Ben from The Bluecoat, Rotherham, as the next in their series of exclusive beers. Being the only volunteer for the day I can safely say that he would wish you all to try this beer into which his blood sweat and tears were poured (metaphorically speaking of course!). We delivered this beer in the week of March snow, but after drinking it the spring weather seems to have finally arrived so I think it's done the trick!

Look out for the summer one which will be coming in late July and will of course contain some weather related pun – suggestions welcome!

June will be a time for Fruit Arcade – a really easy going straw coloured beer at 4.7%. The Fruit Arcade was a huge glasshouse on the Welbeck Estate which they grew all kinds of exciting tropical fruits.

I'm sure you're all pleased about the duty escalator being scrapped, I know we certainly are! We're chuffed about this so have passed on the saving to the pubs and customers which have had as much of a hard time as we have.

A date for your diary! 'Made at Welbeck' Did you know there are over 15 producers and artists working on the Welbeck Estate? Join us, Saturday the 11th of May, from 10am-4pm and discover the exciting array of products made on Welbeck. There will be Welbeck food producers to meet, Harley Artist Studios to explore, market stalls to browse, demonstrations to inspire, and food and real ales to enjoy.

INN BRIEF

SHEFFIELD

The Noah's Ark at Crookes is now advertising cask ale. Jenning's Cumberland Ale and Sharp's Doombar are both available at a very reasonable price of £2.30 a pint.

The Place at Broomhill is now just serving LocAles. On a recent visit there was Thornbridge Jaipur which is always on and also Bradfield Blonde and Kelham Island Pride of Sheffield.

We reported last month that The Hadfield at Commonsides was to close and become a Sainsbury's Local. This is a threat and there have been objections submitted to the council as part of a campaign against this. However in the meantime the pub is alive and well and we urge you to support the current licensee, who has a programme of live music planned there.

The Red Deer on Pitt Street has launched a beer lovers club, it is intended to have a monthly event which will either be based around beer tastings in The Red Deer or a crawl of good beer pubs in the area – starting of course at The Red Deer... The Red Deer also continues to offer real ale discounts to CAMRA members.

There is a petition to support the Dove & Rainbow rock pub. A key part of the pubs offer is live music, there is a risk from potential future complaints as there are plans for the former meeting house next door to be converted to flats. The Council view is that bringing an empty building back to use is more important and that the pub's music shouldn't be a problem if soundproofing is installed.

The Crown on Church Lane in Killamarsh is a bit of an oasis in an area that is a bit of a desert when it comes to good beer. The pub is holding a mini beer festival over the Mayday bank holiday weekend where their range of real ales will be extended to a choice of six. The nearest bus route is on Killamarsh High Street, bus 71 runs direct there hourly from Sheffield, additionally Monday to Saturday daytime there is a Supertramlink bus every 10 minutes from Moss Way tram stop and Crystal Peaks bus station. See p27.

The Bulls Head at Ranmoor is under the new management of Steve Marshall. He has two cask beers on the bar, Cask Marque accreditation and will be looking at expanding the range if demand is there. Dogs and walkers are welcome and he has a week round programme of entertainment planned with a quiz on Sundays which is free to enter and involves free food, poker on Monday nights and live music on a Saturday night.

CHAPELTOWN

The Norfolk Arms serves a range of three real ales, at our correspondents last visit it was selling Tom Woods Gold, Bradfield Blonde and Greene King Abbot Ale.

The Miners Arms has been run by Diane Ogden since October. The previous short hours have been extended, the pub is now open all day and serves food all day. The sole real ale is the regulars' favourite, Thwaites Lancaster Bomber.

The Thorncliffe Arms is another pub in the area with one real ale: Wychwood Hobgoblin.

The Staindrop Lodge has three real ales: Bombardier, Old Hooky and Tetleys.

The Barrel now seems to have the title of "The Barrel Village Pub". It's been opened out but otherwise not much changed. They were selling Abbeydale Moonshine and Copper Dragon Golden Pippin.

The Coach & Horses has one real ale, Bradfield Bitter at last visit.

The Wagon is closed, boarded up and covered in scaffolding. No signs to show what's happening.

The Royal Oak is also closed. It seems to have shut with no warning and no-one is sure why.

The Commercial seemed quite busy despite the snow, and the beer festival seemed to be proving popular.

DRONFIELD

Dronfield CAMRA are pleased to welcome Martin and Linda of The Green Dragon, Dronfield to the local pub scene. To celebrate they are offering a permanent 20 pence per pint discount on real ale for card carrying CAMRA members. This ancient town centre pub has improved terrifically since they took over the license eight months ago! Four real ales on: Black Sheep regular with three guests. Not to be missed pub quizzes on Mondays and Thursdays! The Dragon is a late addition to the 3 Valleys Festival. Six real ales will be available. If you just miss the bus or the train, the pub is only five minutes walk from Dronfield railway station.

The Travellers at Apperknowle has installed a sixth hand-pump! Regular beers will be Timothy Taylors Landlord plus one or two from Abbeydale. Changes will be run on the remaining pumps. Landlady Sara has introduced a 40p per pint discount for card carrying CAMRA members on the Monday night Jazz sessions.

Down the road, Andrew at The Miners in Hundall is offering a permanent 30p per pint on real ale for CAMRA members.

In Barlow, The Tickled Trout has a second real ale, Marston's EPA, which came online just as the April Beer Matters was delivered. Interestingly a weekly prize raffle is held with food, drinks and snack prizes. Drawing takes place after the weekly Sunday Night quiz.

Back to Dronfield, where The Talbot on Carr Lane held a grand re-opening party on Good Friday evening. Due to a logistics glitch, there was no real ale for the event. This situation was rapidly rectified with Farmer's Blond, Sharpe's Doombur and Black Sheep on handpump by early the week after. The Talbot is operated by Glyn and Thomas of Tandem Leisure. The company runs several other local establishments, notably The Royal Oak at Tupton and The Horse and Jockey at Unstone (watch this space!) Opening times 3pm to 11 weekdays, 12 noon to midnight Friday and Saturday 12 noon to 11 pm Sunday

NBT SIBA WIN

NEW BARRACK TAVERN TAKES TOP NATIONAL HONOUR

A Sheffield husband and wife team has scooped a top award from SIBA (the Society of Independent Brewers) in a national competition held during the first BeerX, an event designed to highlight the best of British brewing.

Steph and Kevin Woods, managers at the New Barrack Tavern on the city's Penistone Road, have won a Best SIBA Local award for their outstanding work running this suburban real ale, music, comedy and wholesome food venue.

"This is a great day for us, for Sheffield and of course, our wonderful customers and suppliers whose loyalty and help has made our ten years here such a joy" says Steph. "We're particularly grateful to Dave Hughes at Acorn Brewery whose nomination made our win possible".

"This business award draws attention to our commitment to operating to the best standards possible, and we're both very grateful that our hard work has been recognised" she says.

The New Barrack Tavern is one of the 20 Castle Rock Brewery pubs in the East Midlands and Yorkshire. Brewery managing director, Colin Wilde, says: "This is a just award for Kevin and Steph, and echoes our regard in which they are held. I believe the SIBA scheme is a good initiative, recognising how craft beer suppliers and really good pubs come together to serve the discerning customer well. Well done; keep up the good work".

SIBA's BeerX was held at Ponds Forge, Sheffield, from Thursday 14 to Saturday 16 March 2013.

UNIVERSITY ARMS

MAY: MUSIC, MENUS AND MORE AT THE UNI ARMS

As I write there is a warm sunny glow flowing into the pub and, more importantly, over our award-winning beer garden. Hopefully, this will still be the case whilst you are reading this. In fact, with any luck you are reading this in our beer-garden with a pint of top quality ale within reach. Alongside the garden there is a variety of live music and entertainment to get your summer started...

The Shrimps, Sheffield University's very own comedy improvisation group returns on Saturday 4th May after a fantastic evening hosted by them in March. Come down for a great evening of comedy, see shrimpsimprov.com for more info.

Monday 13th May sees our monthly folk gathering return for a second event. Hosted by the Tin Bath Band and guests there will be a variety of folk and Irish music, come down to have a listen or maybe join in. Please note that this takes place every second Monday of the month.

Every third Saturday of the month sees Saxbob host a night of blues upstairs at the Arms.

May's event will certainly not disappoint, there will be a real treat with 'living bluesman' Tom Attah coming down for a night of authentic Blues. Tom describes himself as 'blacker than the White Stripes and bluer than the Black Keys', and will provide an 'energetic' and 'humorous' set during which he will entertain the audience with tales of the origin of Blues and the meaning behind the songs. There will also be local support. This event will take place on Saturday 25th May. Doors are at 8pm, there will be a charge on the door. Visit tomattah.com or our Facebook for more info.

All this, along with our new spring/summer menu, should help make May a great month at the Uni Arms... maybe (definitely). Hope to see you soon!

The University Arms was awarded Silver Gilt in the Restaurant and Pubs category in last year's Yorkshire in Bloom competition. This year we are going for gold!

SHAKESPEARES

GIBRALTAR STREET, SHEFFIELD CITY CENTRE

The winner of our Sheffield Pub of the Year competition has been announced as Shakespeares on Gibraltar Street.

The award winner is selected by local CAMRA members being invited to vote for their top 6 pubs in the city which are then judged objectively on individual visits by a number of judges, who score the pub on criteria including the availability, range and quality of the cask beers, consumer friendly practices, clientele mix, service and the general experience of visiting the pub.

Shakespeares, under its previous ownership of Punch Taverns, was closed, sold off and spent a year or so boarded up. The current owner, William Wagstaff (who also owns the New Beehive Inn in Bradford), bought the pub and invested in bringing the building up to standard and the construction of an extension, without losing the simple charm of this old coaching Inn. The pub is managed day-to-day by Chris Bamford and Robin Baker.

The bar has an extensive and ever changing range of well kept and carefully selected beers from small craft breweries both local and across the UK along with artisan cider, all at reasonable prices. There's also an upstairs concert room known as the 'Bard's Bar' with a busy programme of live music.

The Bard's Bar

Shakespeares also hosts a beer festival every few months. This involves all the handpumps on the main bar showcasing local breweries and a temporary bar constructed upstairs featuring new, rare or interesting beers from the rest of the UK along with an extended cider range and entertainment. For the summer festivals the event spills into the beer garden with a stall selling freshly baked pizzas.

Shakespeares does not normally serve food other than sandwiches, crisps, nuts etc but if asked nicely are generally very friendly and accommodating if you wish to have a curry delivered from the takeaway over the road to eat in the pub with your pint!

The Clock Room

We'll be presenting their award certificate at the pub on Tuesday 8th May. Celebrations commence 8pm and all are welcome to come down for a pint or two and toast the pub's success.

As the Sheffield winner, Shakespeares goes forward to CAMRA's Yorkshire Pub of the Year competition, the winner of which gets into the national competition.

Sheffield & District CAMRA also award a District Pub of the Year which is entered into the Derbyshire competition. The winner of this was the Anglers Rest at Millers Dale.

Dronfield pubs are no longer judged by Sheffield branch as it now has its own subbranch who choose their own Pub of the Year winner. This was The Three Tuns in Dronfield Hallows which has also gone into the Derbyshire competition. They also awarded a Country Pub of the Year award to the Rutland Arms in Holmesfield.

RUTLAND ARMS

BROWN STREET, SHEFFIELD CITY CENTRE

We presented the April 2013 Pub of the Month certificate to Rutland Arms on the 9th April and a number of CAMRA members along with a good crowd of regulars joined the celebrations.

As is often claimed on their blackboards, there ain't no party like a Rutland party and guests were treated to a buffet which included Cider Pig sandwiches, a big bowl of home made pork scratchings and the Rutland Brownie Mountain. The juke box was turned up loud and they even temporarily suspended the banned music list. Kind of. Posters were also up, filled in by a mixture of staff and customers, illustrating why the Rutland was their personal Pub of the Month.

Then there was the bottled beer raffle. First prize won by Graham off of the Anglers Rest. Second prize won by Andy Stephens off of the Closed Shop. Hmm.

Finally, I suppose the most important thing at a CAMRA do – an excellent line up of beers on the pumps was present and enjoyed. They also temporarily accepted CAMRA Wetherspoon 50p-off-a-pint vouchers, making it great value, and they intend to keep accepting them until the end of April to celebrate being PotM.

YOUR PUB NEEDS YOUR VOTE!

Our Pub of the Month award is a bit of positive campaigning, highlighting local pubs that consistently serve well kept real ale in friendly and comfortable surroundings.

Voting is your opportunity to support good, real ale pubs you feel deserve some recognition and publicity. All CAMRA branch members are welcome to vote at branch meetings or on our website at sheffieldcamra.org.uk/potm. It's not one pub against another, simply vote YES or NO as to whether you think the pub should be PotM. If we get enough votes in time we will make the award.

Nomination forms are available at branch meetings. The pub must have been open and serving real ale for a year and under the same management for 6 months. Winners compete alongside our Good Beer Guide entries for branch Pub of the Year, the winner of which is entered into the national competition.

The list of nominees includes which buses to take if you fancy a trip to try them out:

3 VALLEYS BEER FESTIVAL

SATURDAY 8TH JUNE SEES THE RETURN OF THIS ANNUAL FESTIVAL

An event spread over 10 pubs and a brewery linked by a regular free bus service offering a fantastic beery day out.

Each venue will offer a different beer range and a different atmosphere. Many venues will also feature food or live music. The free bus runs every half hour allowing you to hop between the venues to experience what each has to offer.

The simplest way to arrive in Three Valleys land is to catch a train to Dronfield or Dore station where the free festival bus services will pick up. The alternative is to catch a service bus to one of the venues (for example the Stagecoach 43 which runs from Sheffield to Chesterfield via Dronfield).

THE COACH & HORSES

A cosy Dronfield pub attached to the Sheffield FC ground and operated on the club's behalf by Thornbridge. The pub bar will offer a selection of their beers, while out in the beer garden a festival bar will work its way through a list of guest beers from some of the more interesting craft brewers. Also outside will be a music stage and BBQ.

THE GREEN DRAGON INN

In the centre of Dronfield's old town, opposite the church, it has history and character by the bagload. The upstairs bar will be brought into use extending the beer range up to 6 or 7 real ales.

DRONFIELD ARMS

It might be described as a modern local and had failed and closed its previous guise as the Old Sidings. Now under independent ownership following a refurbishment, this town centre bar goes from strength-to-strength. The usual range of beers will be on the bar inside while out back on the decking will be a festival bar supplied and stocked by Raw Brewery showcasing their range plus some interesting guest ales. Souvenir Dronfield Arms beer glasses will be available to buy to drink them out of! Also outside at the rear, the car park will be closed off and host a music stage. Food will also be available.

THE THREE TUNS

At Hallowes is Spire Brewery's flagship pub; a big clean and comfy mock tudor affair with good beer, cider and pub grub all at reasonable prices. All 12 handpumps will be showcasing Spire's beer range with guest ales available direct from the cellar and a selection of traditional ciders. The car park will be closed off for food stalls, music and more. Last year there was a hog roast and freshly made pizzas, expect similar this year!

THE JOLLY FARMER

An estate pub in Dronfield Woodhouse operated by the Pub

People Company, a small East Midlands based pub chain. The Jolly is fitted out with an 'alehouse' theme keeping it traditional and boasts a glass fronted cellar. Beers on the handpumps will be supplemented by a number of extra beers served direct from the cask with offerings from Abbeydale, Kelham Island and Sheffield Brewery. A meet the brewer session is planned with Sheffield Brewery. Great value pub meals available throughout the day.

MINERS ARMS

In Dronfield Woodhouse, is this fine example of a good community local. A range of real ales available here along with bar meals and a proper beer garden. This pub is also where the two festival bus routes connect.

THE HEARTY OAK

On Northern Common, this is another big mock tudor pub. This one has multiple rooms: a comfy lounge where home cooked food is served, a tap room with pool table and a conservatory area at the back. All 9 handpumps will be in use, a carvery counter will offer hot roast pork sandwiches and there will be live music in the evening. Also expected to boast a cider tent behind the pub.

CASTLE INN

At Bradway, this pub takes up one end of a row of old terraced cottages and overlooks the portal of Bradway rail tunnel. 3 rooms – comfy lounge, tap room with darts and Sky and dining room. Plus newly landscaped beer garden at the rear. All 6 handpumps will be pressed into use with beers from Bradfield and Blue Bee. There will also be a selection of strong artisan ciders from Woodthorpe Hall, Holmesfield. BBQ during the day and live music in the evening.

RUTLAND ARMS

At Cowley Bar, this popular country pub is cosy, comfortable, friendly and has good beer. You can also buy local newspapers, eggs and more here! Sheffield Brewery will be providing a bar showcasing their beers. There are likely to be other attractions too – keep an eye on the website!

THE HORNS INN

At the centre of Holmesfield village, the pool table will be kicked out to make way for a festival bar provided by Acorn showcasing their range. Also expect live music and snacks.

BARLOW BREWERY

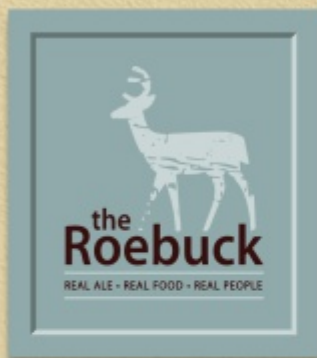

Finally, this small craft brewery making fine ales on a rather Heath Robinson style plant. The brewery is in a converted barn and they're holding a music festival in the farmyard. There will be an outdoor stage with an all day programme of entertainment, a food van serving gourmet sausages and a marquee featuring a Barlow Brewery bar and bales of hay to sit down on!

STEEL CITY 39TH FESTIVAL

We are pleased to be able to confirm we are organising a Steel City Beer & Cider Festival at Ponds Forge again this year. This is our 39th annual festival and the theme will be celebrating 100 years of Stainless Steel production in Sheffield.

Ponds Forge is one of Sheffield's flagship venues and is conveniently located close to the bus and rail stations and also has its own tram stop. The festival is held in the International Sports Hall where we will have a big island bar serving a massive range of beers (all cooled) along with an extensive selection of traditional Cider and Perry.

There will also be a programme of live music every night plus a brass band on Saturday.

The festival launches at 5pm on Wednesday 23rd October and is then open at midday each day up to Saturday 26th and close at 11pm each night.

There are plenty of sponsorship opportunities – from individual casks of beer right up to the festival hall, you can get your business seen at the festival! Sponsors also get a number of complimentary tickets which could be used for a social with staff or clients! For those with a lower budget, you can also advertise in the festival programme. For more information on sponsorship and advertising, please contact Geoff Mason (contact details are available on the festival website).

The festival is organised, managed and staffed by volunteer CAMRA members that wish to share their passion for good beer or cider. Volunteers do not get paid but they do enjoy free entry, a free beer and cider allowance and a staff party afterwards, amongst other perks. If you would like to volunteer to help, contact the staffing officer Louise Singleton (again, contact details are on the festival website).

Watch this space for news on the festival as we get closer to the date!

CHESTERFIELD PUB CRAWL

In order to showcase the excellent pubs and beer available on the number 43 bus route from Sheffield to Chesterfield, Dronfield sub-branch undertook a pub crawl of the Chesterfield and southern Dronfield part of the bus route.

We started at The Three Tuns in Dronfield. A Spire Brewery pub with 12 hand pumps serving a range of beers from Spire, plus guest beers from the likes of Raw and Derventio. Never a bad place to start any sort of beery endeavour!

From there we caught the bus into Chesterfield centre and proceeded to The White Swan. Nestling in the shadow of the crooked spire, this former Chinese restaurant was taken over by Raw Brewery last year and what a job they've done! A large range of real ales on offer, so I started off with Whim Hartington IPA, one of those beers that I always consider a little under-rated. I then decided to take advantage of the outstanding bottled beer range at The White Swan and shared round a bottle of Kernel Centennial IPA, at 7.2% this bottle conditioned ale is a bit on the boozy side but it certainly delivers big hoppy flavour as well.

Chesterfield Arms

From there we proceeded down Newbould Road to the Chesterfield Arms. Again, a very large range of real ales on offer here. 12 beers on hand pump from the likes of Abbeydale, Everards, Leatherbritches and Whim Ales. In the barn bar there were 4 beers being served on gravity, including Thornbridge Jaipur and Darkstar American Pale Ale. After previously been drinking the hoppy stuff I chose to drink stout here, sampling stouts from Leatherbritches and Titanic.

World's Best Golden Ale?

On the way back to the bus some of us took a cheeky detour into the Neptune Inn on St Helens Street. Only one real ale was on offer here, Thwaites Wainwright. A 4.1% beer billed on the hand pump as the "World's Best Golden Ale". A good beer, but the world's best golden ale? Not so sure about that one.

One of our party also briefly popped into the St Helens Inn where apparently they are serving their own brewed porter!

From there our group got back on the bus towards Sheffield. Just past Chesterfield FC's football ground on Sheffield Road there is The Beer Parlour and The Derby Tup.

The White Swan

The Beer Parlour is a specialist real ale off-licence with 3 cask ale pumps plus an extensive range of world beers and local bottle conditioned ales. Only a small shop but very busy and very friendly too. I opted to go for a bottle of Buxton Imperial Black IPA here. A 7.4% bottle conditioned monster of a beer. I only wish I could find this beer on cask again as it is a firm favourite.

Just a few doors down from The Beer Parlour is The Derby Tup.

A long standing stalwart of the Chesterfield real ale scene, this Castle Rock pub serves up to 10 real ales. After the Buxton Imperial Black IPA in The Beer Parlour, Castle Rock Harvest Pale was a welcome return to sane beer. Thornbridge Kipling was also sampled here.

The Beer Parlour

From there it was back on the number 43 bus to Dronfield, where our night finished at the Dronfield Arms. There was a 50th birthday party taking place, but our party continued, with Red Squirrel Redwood IPA proving a popular choice. An excellent amber ale to conclude an evening of good company and fine ales, all within easy reach of the number 43 bus from Sheffield.

CRAFT, CASK AND KEG...

In the UK the 'craft beer movement' is getting a lot of new drinkers, mainly younger, interested in beer and caring about the quality of what they drink. However, there is no formal definition... exactly what is 'craft beer'?

The term 'craft beer' and the associated 'craft brewer' as defined by the American Brewers Association refers to "small, independent and traditional" brewers. 'small' is defined as an "annual production of 6 million barrels of beer or less". Hence, according to the Americans, virtually all of the Independents section of the CAMRA Good Beer Guide are 'craft brewers'.

They also define 'traditional' as "a brewer who has either an all malt flagship or has at least 50% of its volume in either all malt beers or in beers which use adjuncts to enhance rather than lighten flavour" (a veiled reference to 30% rice Budweiser?).

By the American definition, cask conditioned beer is craft beer: so is keg beer if produced by a craft brewer. However, a great beer brewed by a multinational (e.g. cask Worthington's No.1 Barley Wine) would not be a craft beer whereas a bottled carbonated product produced by a small brewer (e.g. Aston Manor) would be... this is a recipe for confusion.

CAMRA promotes cask conditioned beer ('real ale'): the flavours come through, carbonation is subtle and it's fresh and natural. CAMRA was founded when many brewers were turning towards mass-produced, truly awful keg products, the likes of Watneys Red, Whitbread Tankard and Worthington 'E'. Over 40 years later, the real ale scene is at its most buoyant for many years. However, awful keg hasn't gone away. I recently attended a function at a large local hotel. The beer choice was Tetleys Smooth: a craft keg would have been preferable. Luckily I was the designated driver.

'Craft keg' is manifestly superior to the likes of this. Some can be very good, and can be better than a bland, badly kept cask. Some of the more interesting, adventurous brewers (eg. Brewdog, Camden, Magic Rock, Steel City and Thornbridge) produce quantities of high quality keg beer. Locally, Dada, the Sheffield Tap, and many other bars, always have a selection. There is also a strongly rumoured imminent Brewdog Sheffield. This is likely to concentrate on highly hopped craft keg beers of relatively high abv (eg. the 10% Cocoa Psycho which is described as "a decadent and indulgent Imperial Russian Stout"). They will be worth sampling.

In the UK, craft beer has already spawned at least one book. The associated Apple app, 'Craft Beer London', was an excellent companion some weeks ago. The maps took me straight to a number of hard-to-find pubs which provided high quality beer (both cask and craft keg). In addition, I was directed to the 'City Beverage Company' on Old Street, where, in addition to bottled beer from a new London brewery, Pressure Drop, craft keg Magic Rock was available to take away in freshly crown-corked bottles.

Perhaps the way forward is for CAMRA (or SIBA) to formulate a clear UK definition for 'craft beer' then develop a separate campaign for 'craft keg', in a similar manner in which Apple campaigns for real cider and perry?

Dave Pickersgills

So, CAMRA's POLICY?

CAMRA is the Campaign FOR Real Ale, not the campaign against other drinks. CAMRA recognises the term 'craft beer' in the same way the Americans do – beer brewed in smaller quantities with quality ingredients – and therefore recognise the campaigning landscape is different to the early days when keg beer was a threat to cask. Therefore our policy is that craft keg is out of the scope of our campaign, just as the wines and spirits that pubs also sell alongside real ale.
