

Sheffield meandering trail Quiz.

Find your way around parts of central Sheffield. Clues are a blend of general knowledge and cryptic. Any A-Z of Sheffield may be helpful but is not necessary if you know the city.

Entry £1. Please consider making a donation of any size to support the work of Epilepsy Action.

1	This square once housed the market cross. A chess manoeuvre or fortified. From the 1960s its nickname coincided with a Bernard Cribbins hit song of the period.	(6,6) (4,2,3,4)
2	Go west to the first "hard sum". One hundred butlers lose their head looking at the silver. It has been here, opposite the church, since 1634.	(7,4)
3	Scout a lane west for a kettle tripod or cam. Fall softly alien perhaps.	(7,4)
4	Beyond to a place of learning. This has given birth to a definite jewel of a building to engineering our carbon future.	(3,7)
5	South on a regal street leads to a place of ablutions, now apartments. The highway to a High Peak town was turnpikes in 1818. Initially gentlemen/ladies only swam separately, opening publicly 1836.	(7,4,5)
6	Head SE for a verdant county. (He calls Chatsworth home.)	(10,5)
7	Generally speaking you can keep your feet dry walking this road eastward.	(10,6)
8	The waggoner had a hotel inside this polygon which recently had heart surgery.	(7,6)
9	Heading east the 13 th century lord of the manor lends his name to this entrance. A rival get fun, perhaps.	(8,4)
10	Head north to Sussex to find the seat of the lord of the manor, the Duke of Norfolk. Run lead by the field entrance, perhaps.	(7,4)
12	Cue: This place of entertainment is in the round. Huntsman used the pots to make steel.	(3,8,7)
13	South west along the ducal street to another "hard sum". Queen Victoria opened the municipal building in 1897.	(4,4)
14	Off to the west we might see our third "hard sum" to entertain us in classical style in an oval. We are in a large metropolis.	(4,4)
15	Back to 13 and then north for a distant open-able barrier.	(7)
16	Beyond a place of worship to a quadrilateral where Wesley preached. Perhaps Delius thought it still a garden on a walk to this heavenly place.	(8,6)
17	Downhill to a cardinal (bearing 270°) drinking place by the court.	(4,3)
18	East for a game of cards in this roadway towards the river.	(6,6)
19	At the river crossing. Is this not for a gentleman?	(5,6)
20	A watery end awaits. The queen empress can unlock the clue. We hear. First opened in 1819 this transport link was rejuvenated and renamed in the 1990s.	(8,5)

The winner is the first correct sheet drawn at random at the closing date. There is no prize this time just the honour of victory. The judge's decision is final.

Epilepsy Action is the UK's largest epilepsy membership organisation, aiming to support the 600,000 people across the country with the condition, as well as educating the wider public and helping to break down the stigma that still exists about epilepsy.

In the Sheffield area, our local branch acts as a support group to people with epilepsy, their families and friends, as well as working at informing and educating the public about the condition.

When we are allowed there will be monthly meetings on a Thursday evening and a Saturday morning again.

You are welcome to attend if you wish.
